* Senior Secondary passed candidates shall get proportionate weightage of 12 marks for academic qualification;
 Graduate degree holders shall get proportionate weightage of 3 additional marks for their graduation.

Note: Clarification of Marks for candidate opted Graduation as academic qualification: Candidate having Graduation with Honours can calculate percentage of marks (i) on the basis of marks obtained in honours subjects or on the basis of marks obtained taking together the marks of Honours & Pass Subjects (where separate marks for Honours subject and Pass subject is given in the marksheet). (ii) In case separate marks for pass subjects and honours subjects are not recorded in the final examination mark sheet by the concerned university, the Credit Score / CGPA (converted into percentage) in honours course will only be considered.

Candidates having higher weightage will be selected for the post. When two or more candidates obtain same weightage, relative position would be judged in terms of seniority of date of birth of the candidates. In case date of birth is same then seniority of the date of obtaining requisite academic qualification for appearing in the said examination would be judged. Senior candidate will be given preference. In final case, if required; the percentage of marks in the qualifying examination (academic) will be taken into consideration and preference will be given whose percentage of marks is higher.
